STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Speak, for your servant is listening." With those few words Samuel humbles himself and declares his loyalty and obedience to God. There are perhaps for many of us challenges in those words. Initially Samuel responds "Here I am," but thinks it was Eli who called him.

The idea of being a servant and the willingness to serve are what may be trials for us in terms of how we live.

Samuel does not recognize the voice of the Lord. That, too, may be a problem for us. First we need to be listening. Are we, or are we merely going through the motions? Responding to God with "Here I am" is a magnificent way to react to God. It is not that God does not know where we are, but saying that can serve as a reminder to us that we are stewards, servants to Him, and it implies we are prepared to hear what He wants us to do. "Here I am" is said numerous times by those in the Old Testament including Abraham, Jacob, Moses, Isaiah, and by Ananias in the New Testament. When Jesus says, "Come follow me," as He does to us, do we hear Him, and even more important do we respond and do we follow?

In order to do that properly we have to be prepared to serve Him and others. Thus, like Samuel, we need to listen, and then we need to serve. At a recent papal audience, Pope Francis said, "Love and charity are service, helping others, serving others. When you forget yourself and think of others, this is love!" From: <http://www.catholicsteward.com/blog>

REFLECIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

"Habla, porque tu siervo está escuchando". Con esas pocas palabras, Samuel se humilla y declara su lealtad y obediencia a Dios. Hay quizás para muchos de nosotros desafíos en esas palabras. Inicialmente Samuel responde "Aquí estoy", pero cree que fue Eli quien lo llamó. La idea de ser un servidor y la voluntad de servir son lo que pueden ser pruebas para nosotros en términos de cómo vivimos. Samuel no reconoce la voz del Señor. Eso también puede ser un problema para nosotros. Primero debemos estar escuchando.

¿Estamos, o simplemente estamos haciendo los movimientos? Responder a Dios con "Aquí estoy" es una forma magnífica de reaccionar ante Dios. No es que Dios no sepa dónde estamos, pero decir eso puede servirnos como un recordatorio de que somos corresponsables, siervos de Él, e implica que estamos preparados para escuchar lo que Él quiere que hagamos. "Aquí estoy" es dicho muchas veces por aquellos en el Antiguo Testamento, incluyendo a Abraham, Jacob, Moisés, Isaías y por Ananías en el Nuevo Testamento. Cuando Jesús dice: "Ven y sígueme", como nos lo hace a Él, ¿lo escuchamos? Y aún más importante, ¿respondemos y seguimos? Para hacer eso correctamente, debemos estar preparados para servirlo a Él y a los demás. Por lo tanto, al igual que Samuel, tenemos que escuchar, y luego tenemos que servir. En una audiencia papal reciente, el Papa Francisco dijo: "El amor y la caridad son servicio, ayudan a otros, sirven a otros. Cuando te olvidas de ti mismo y piensas en los demás, ¡esto es amor!"
