COLLECTION FOR THE CHURCH IN LATIN AMERICA

Thank you for your generous support last week of the Collection for the Church in Latin America. If you missed the collection, it’s not too late to give! Just visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections and click “How to Give” on the left. Your gift will certainly make a difference!

COLECTA PARA LA IGLESIA EN AMÉRICA LATINA Muchas gracias por su generoso apoyo a la Colecta para la Iglesia en América Latina la semana pasada. ¡Si no alcanzaron a dar en la colecta, todavía lo pueden hacer! Visiten www.usccb.org/nationalcollections y hagan clic en “How to Give” en el lado izquierdo. ¡Sus donativos, de hecho, harán una diferencia!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) posts notes regarding all the Books of the Bible. In its introduction to Paul’s Letter to the Romans (our Second Reading), the USCCB says, “Of all the letters of Paul, that to the Christians at Rome has long held pride of place. It is the longest and most systematic unfolding of the apostle’s thought, expounding the gospel of God’s righteousness that saves all who believe; it reflects a universal outlook.” Paul’s Letter to the Romans is in fact the longest of his letters in the New Testament (Romans is more than 7,000 words; that is much shorter, of course, than the shortest Gospel, Mark, which is still more than 11,000 words.) However, as stated by the Bishops, the Letter to the Romans explained in a more detailed way Paul’s theology and spirituality than any other letter. Regardless the length, today’s reading contains a statement with which many of us are familiar, but which has great meaning: “If God is for us, who can be against us?” The significance of that is that if we are on the side of righteousness, which should be a major goal of our Lenten experience, there should be nothing to threaten us. We understand that we will be judged. Paul’s point is if we are judged “not guilty” by God, who can bring an additional charge with any merit? Or, if Jesus is our advocate, promoting our benefit, then who can condemn us? This is the time to place our trust in God, and in His love. From: <http://www.catholicsteward.com/blog>

REFLECIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

La Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos (USCCB) publica notas con respecto a todos los Libros de la Biblia. En su introducción a la Carta a los Romanos de Pablo (nuestra Segunda Lectura), la USCCB dice: "De todas las cartas de Pablo, que a los cristianos en Roma siempre ha tenido un lugar de honor. Es el despliegue más largo y sistemático del pensamiento del apóstol, que expone el evangelio de la justicia de Dios que salva a todos los que creen; refleja una perspectiva universal ". La carta de Pablo a los Romanos es, de hecho, la más larga de sus cartas en el Nuevo Testamento (Romanos tiene más de 7,000 palabras, es mucho más corto, por supuesto, que el Evangelio más corto, Marcos, que todavía tiene más de 11,000 palabras). como lo declararon los Obispos, la Carta a los Romanos explicaba de una manera más detallada la teología y la espiritualidad de Pablo que cualquier otra carta. Independientemente de la duración, la lectura de hoy contiene una declaración con la que muchos de nosotros estamos familiarizados, pero que tiene un gran significado: "Si Dios es por nosotros, ¿quién puede estar en contra de nosotros?" El significado de eso es que si estamos del lado de La rectitud, que debería ser un objetivo principal de nuestra experiencia Cuaresmal, no debería haber nada que nos amenazara. Entendemos que seremos juzgados. El punto de Pablo es si Dios nos juzga "no culpables", ¿quién puede presentar un cargo adicional con algún mérito? O, si Jesús es nuestro defensor, promoviendo nuestro beneficio, ¿quién nos puede condenar? Este es el momento de depositar nuestra confianza en Dios y en Su amor.
