STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Our First Reading from the Old Testament Book of Exodus presents the Ten Commandments, as God gave them to Moses. The Commandments also appear in the Book of Deuteronomy (Chapter 5; verses 6-21). The Commandments are reaffirmed in the New Testament by Jesus Himself and especially in the Gospel of John. The Ten Commandments are also called the “Decalogue,” which means literally “ten words.” According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church (#2056) “God revealed these ‘ten words’ to His people on the holy mountain. They were written ‘with the finger of God.’ They are pre-eminently the words of God” At another point the Catechism fortifies the Commandments by saying, “...from generation to generation...the ‘deposit’ of moral teaching has been handed on. Along with the Creed and the Our Father, the basis for catechesis has traditionally been the Decalogue, which sets out the principles of moral life valid for all people.” (#2033) The Commandments are considered essential for spiritual good health and growth. They serve as the basis for Catholic social justice. A review of the Ten Commandments is a common type of examination of conscience before receiving the sacrament of Penance. As Lent draws to a close, it is important for each of us to go to confession and receive the sacrament of Penance. As part of that we may wish to look at our lives and how we live them through the holy words of the Ten Commandments. From: <http://www.catholicsteward.com/blog>

REFLEXIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

Nuestra primera lectura del Libro del Éxodo del Antiguo Testamento presenta los Diez Mandamientos, tal como Dios se los dio a Moisés. Los Mandamientos también aparecen en el Libro de Deuteronomio (Capítulo 5, versículos 6-21). Los Mandamientos son reafirmados en el Nuevo Testamento por Jesús mismo y especialmente en el Evangelio de Juan. Los Diez Mandamientos también se llaman el "Decálogo", que literalmente significa "diez palabras". De acuerdo con el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica (# 2056) "Dios reveló estas 'diez palabras' a su pueblo en la montaña santa. Fueron escritos 'con el dedo de Dios'. Son preeminentemente las palabras de Dios " En otro punto, el Catecismo fortalece los Mandamientos al decir: "... de generación en generación ... el 'depósito' de la enseñanza moral ha sido transmitido. Junto con el Credo y el Padre Nuestro, la base de la catequesis ha sido tradicionalmente el Decálogo, que establece los principios de la vida moral válidos para todas las personas ". (# 2033) Los Mandamientos se consideran esenciales para la buena salud espiritual y el crecimiento. Sirven de base para la justicia social católica. Una revisión de los Diez Mandamientos es un tipo común de examen de conciencia antes de recibir el sacramento de la Penitencia. Cuando la Cuaresma llega a su fin, es importante que cada uno de nosotros se confiese y reciba el sacramento de la Penitencia. Como parte de eso, podemos desear mirar nuestras vidas y cómo las vivimos a través de las santas palabras de los Diez Mandamientos.
