STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Easter Sunday is but two weeks away (April 1). In our First Reading from the prophet Jeremiah, we hear God tell us, “I will forgive their evildoing and remember their sin no more.” To affirm that forgiveness, St. Paul has this to say in the Second Reading: “He (Jesus) became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.” There is a connection between these two statements which present forgiveness as the way to salvation. The Lenten season is one of penance, reflection, prayer, almsgiving, and fasting, perhaps even in that order, so we can better prepare ourselves for Easter Sunday and beyond. Lent reminds us that God is gracious and merciful. God’s divine mercy is a central theme of Lent. One might say that the priceless gift of God’s mercy is highlighted and celebrated in the Church in the Sacrament of Reconciliation (confession). That should be a key part of our Lenten journey. As mentioned only two weeks remain on that journey so getting to reconciliation is important if we have not done so already. Sacramental confession allows God’s loving mercy and His grace-filled absolution to be confirmed to us through a priest. God sees us with love, mercy, and an abundance of forgiveness. Christ, through the priest, helps us to let go of anything that gets in the way of our relationship to God. St. Isidore wrote, “Confession heals, confession justifies, confession grants pardon of sin. All hope consists in confession. In confession there is a chance for mercy.” From: <http://www.catholicsteward.com/blog>

REFLEXIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

El domingo de Pascua está a dos semanas de distancia (1 de abril). En nuestra primera lectura del profeta Jeremías, escuchamos a Dios decirnos: "Perdonaré su maldad y no me acordaré más de su pecado". Para afirmar ese perdón, San Pablo tiene esto que decir en la Segunda lectura: "Él (Jesús) se convirtió en la fuente de la salvación eterna para todos los que le obedecen". Existe una conexión entre estas dos afirmaciones que presentan el perdón como el camino a la salvación. El tiempo de Cuaresma es de penitencia, reflexión, oración, limosna y ayuno, tal vez incluso en ese orden, para que podamos prepararnos mejor para el Domingo de Pascua y más allá. La Cuaresma nos recuerda que Dios es misericordioso. La misericordia divina de Dios es un tema central de la Cuaresma. Se podría decir que el don inestimable de la misericordia de Dios se destaca y celebra en la Iglesia en el Sacramento de la Reconciliación (confesión). Esa debería ser una parte clave de nuestro viaje Cuaresmal. Como se mencionó, solo quedan dos semanas en ese viaje, por lo que llegar a la reconciliación es importante si aún no lo hemos hecho. La confesión sacramental permite que la misericordia amorosa de Dios y su absolución llena de gracia se confirmen a través de un sacerdote. Dios nos ve con amor, misericordia y una abundancia de perdón. Cristo, a través del sacerdote, nos ayuda a dejar ir todo lo que se interponga en nuestra relación con Dios. San Isidro escribió: "La confesión sana, la confesión justifica, la confesión concede el perdón del pecado". Toda esperanza consiste en la confesión. En la confesión hay una posibilidad de piedad"
