STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

In his letter to the Philippians, our Second Reading on this Palm Sunday, St. Paul writes, "...he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross." Everything we hear today and during Holy Week relates to this statement. For some 2,000 years scholars and theologians have debated what the phrase "emptied himself" means. As is sometimes the case, in the midst of these debates and discussions they lose focus of what is really Paul's point and teaching perhaps. One of the things Paul might be trying to get us to think about is emptying ourselves to a certain extent. If you have ever been to a retreat or been part of a spiritual exercise, you may be encouraged to "empty yourself" so you are prepared to in reality add something. Jesus gave much up to be the Son of Man. At this point in our Lenten journey, we need to grasp that He gave up His life so that we might have life. That is what should be on our minds as we hear the Passion today and as we continue and complete our own preparation for Christ's resurrection on Easter. Have you ever heard someone say about someone else "He (or she) is so full of himself (or herself)?" Jesus was not "full of Himself." He emptied Himself, and that is something we, too, must strive to do to be His disciple.

REFLEXIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

En su carta a los Filipenses, nuestra Segunda Lectura en este Domingo de Ramos, San Pablo escribe: "... se vació a sí mismo, tomando la forma de un esclavo, viniendo a la semejanza humana; y encontrado humano en apariencia, se humilló a sí mismo, llegando a ser obediente hasta el punto de morir, incluso la muerte en una cruz. "Todo lo que escuchamos hoy y durante la Semana Santa se relaciona con esta declaración. Durante unos 2,000 años, académicos y teólogos han debatido sobre lo que significa la frase "vaciado". Como es a veces el caso, en medio de estos debates y discusiones pierden el foco de lo que realmente es el punto de Pablo y la enseñanza tal vez. Una de las cosas en las que Pablo intenta hacernos pensar es en vaciarnos hasta cierto punto. Si alguna vez ha sido un retiro o ha sido parte de un ejercicio espiritual, se le puede animar a "vaciarlo" para que esté preparado para agregar algo en realidad. Jesús dio mucho para ser el Hijo del Hombre. En este punto de nuestro viaje cuaresmal, debemos entender que Él entregó su vida para que podamos tener vida. Eso es lo que debería estar en nuestras mentes al escuchar la Pasión hoy y mientras continuamos y completamos nuestra propia preparación para la resurrección de Cristo en la Pascua. ¿Alguna vez has escuchado a alguien decir sobre alguien más "Él (o ella) está tan lleno de sí mismo?" Jesús no estaba "lleno de Sí mismo". Se vació a Sí Mismo, y eso es algo que nosotros también debemos esforzarnos por hacer para ser su discípulo
