STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

One of the recommended Responsorial Psalms on this glorious Easter Sunday is Psalm 118, including this from verse 24: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad." In truth Easter is all about rejoicing. It is the day of Resurrection which provides hope to all of us. Throughout our diocese thousands of people are at Mass today who may not normally attend. Recent studies have shown that as many as 40 percent of those who do not regularly attend may not have been at Mass since Christmas. That is another reason for us to rejoice and say "Welcome home." We miss you and we love you. Christ's love for us is at the foundation of our celebration today. St. Augustine once wrote, "God loves each of us as if there were only one of us." We ask God's blessings on all those who have passed our amazing religion to you. Clearly you do remember your devotion and are here to honor it. Our Catholic Church considers today to be the holiest day of the year. For us as Catholics this celebrates one of the greatest days in history — when Jesus, the Son of God, defeated death and rose from the grave giving us all hope for eternal life. St. Pope John Paul II may have put it best several years ago when he proclaimed, "Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the Easter people and hallelujah is our song."

REFLEXIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

Uno de los Salmos Responsoriales recomendados en este glorioso Domingo de Pascua es el Salmo 118, que incluye el versículo 24: "Este es el día que el Señor hizo; alegrémonos y regocijense. "En verdad, la Pascua se trata de regocijo. Es el día de la Resurrección el que nos brinda esperanza a todos nosotros. A lo largo de nuestra diócesis, hoy miles de personas están en la misa a las que normalmente no asisten. Estudios recientes han demostrado que hasta el 40 por ciento de los que no asisten regularmente pueden no haber asistido a misa desde Navidad. Esa es otra razón para que nos regocijemos y le digamos "Bienvenido a casa". Te extrañamos y te amamos. El amor de Cristo por nosotros es el fundamento de nuestra celebración de hoy. Una vez, San Agustín escribió: "Dios nos ama a cada uno de nosotros como si solo hubiera uno de nosotros". Pedimos las bendiciones de Dios para todos aquellos que le han transmitido nuestra asombrosa religión. Claramente, si recuerdas tu devoción y estás aquí para honrarlo.

Nuestra Iglesia Católica considera que hoy es el día más sagrado del año. Para nosotros, como católicos, esto celebra uno de los mejores días de la historia: cuando Jesús, el Hijo de Dios, derrotó a la muerte y resucitó de la tumba, nos dio esperanza para la vida eterna. San Juan Pablo II pudo haberlo expresado mejor hace varios años cuando proclamó: "No se abandonen a la desesperación. Somos la gente de Pascua y el alabanza es nuestra canción".

CURSILLISTAS -- REKINDLE THE FIRE

Let us rekindle the Cursillo canon "Make a Friend, Be a Friend, and Bring a Friend to Christ". The Yakima Diocese Cursillo Movement strives to renew its vibrant, evangelical culture to all within the Diocese. Let's make 2018 an exciting year for Cursillistas to bring Christ to their family members, friends, co-workers – to all they are in contact with. Review your list of Catholic friends and assess if there are any of those friends who would benefit from a Cursillo Weekend retreat as you did. Talk to those friends and share with them what your Cursillo Weekend experience meant to you. If your friend seems to want to grow closer to Christ and grow in his/her Catholic faith suggest that you would like to sponsor them for the upcoming English/bilingual Cursillo Weekends to be held in Kennewick at St. Joseph Parish on May 3-6, 2018 for women and April 26-29, 2018 for men. Information about the scheduled English and Bilingual speaking Cursillo Weekends is available from: Carl Zeamer: Lay Director – English at carwinzeam@charter.net or 509-943-9991

Additional information about the Cursillo Movement is on the Yakima Diocese website under "Ministries". Application forms can be downloaded from the Yakima Diocese Cursillo website at "www.natl-cursillo.org/yakima".
