CURSILLISTAS—REKINDLE THE FIRE Let us rekindle the Cursillo canon “Make a Friend, Be a Friend, and Bring a Friend to Christ”. The Yakima Diocese Cursillo Movement strives to renew its vibrant, evangelical culture to all within the Diocese. Let’s make 2018 an exciting year for Cursillistas to bring Christ to their family members, friends, co-workers – to all they are in contact with. Review your list of Catholic friends and assess if there are any of those friends who would benefit from a Cursillo Weekend retreat as you did. Talk to those friends and share with them what your Cursillo Weekend experience meant to you. If your friend seems to want to grow closer to Christ and grow in his/her Catholic faith suggest that you would like to sponsor them for the upcoming English/bilingual Cursillo Weekends to be held in Kennewick at St. Joseph Parish on May 3-6, 2018 for women and April 26-29, 2018 for men. Information about the scheduled English and Bilingual speaking Cursillo Weekends is available from: Carl Zeamer: Lay Director – English at car-winzeam@charter.net or 509-943-9991 Additional information about the Cursillo Movement is on the Yakima Diocese website under “Ministries”. ### STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

“He is the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone.” This is St Peter preaching again in the First Reading from the Acts of the Apostles. However, in this instance he is speaking at his own trial. He and St. John had been imprisoned. What a different man Peter is compared to the man who denied Jesus in fear! Peter is no longer intimidated by the authorities; keep in mind that this is in effect the same court which condemned Christ to crucifixion. Earlier in Acts we witness Peter and the other disciples being filled with the Holy Spirit. This is not a one-time event, but something ongoing throughout their lives. A woman named Corrie Ten Boom was a resistance leader and practitioner in the Netherlands in World War II. She and her sister provided a hiding place for Jews and others being sought by the Nazis. She later wrote a book titled “The Hiding Place” about those experiences. The Ten Booms were betrayed in 1944, arrested, and brought to trial. What she stated at that trial very much parallels what we hear from St. Peter today. She cited the power of the Holy Spirit. She said, “Trying to do the Lord’s work in your own strength is the most confusing, exhausting, and tedious of all work. But when you are filled with the Holy Spirit, then the ministry of Jesus just flows out of you.” Like St. Peter and Corrie Ten Boom, we are all filled with the Holy Spirit. Do we let it flow out of us? From: <http://www.catholicsteward.com/blog>

REFLEXIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

“Él es la piedra rechazada por ustedes, los constructores, que se ha convertido en la piedra angular.” Esto es San Pedro predicando nuevamente en la Primera Lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles. Sin embargo, en este caso, él está hablando en su propio juicio. Él y San Juan habían sido encarcelados. ¡Qué hombre tan diferente es comparado con el hombre que negó a Jesús con miedo! Pedro ya no se deja intimidar por las autoridades; tenga en cuenta que este es en efecto el mismo tribunal que condenó a Cristo a la crucifixión. Anteriormente en Hechos, somos testigos de cómo Pedro y los otros discípulos se llenan del Espíritu Santo. Este no es un evento de una sola vez, sino algo continuo a lo largo de sus vidas. Una mujer llamada Corrie Ten Boom fue líder y practicante de resistencia en los Países Bajos en la Segunda Guerra Mundial. Ella y su hermana proporcionaron un escondite para judíos y otros buscados por los nazis. Más tarde escribió un libro titulado “The Hiding Place” sobre esas experiencias. Los diez auges fueron traicionados en 1944, arrestados y llevados a juicio. Lo que declaró en ese juicio es muy similar a lo que escuchamos de San Pedro hoy. Ella citó el poder del Espíritu Santo. Ella dijo: “Tratar de hacer el trabajo del Señor con tu propia fuerza es el trabajo más confuso, agotador y tedioso. Pero cuando estás lleno del Espíritu Santo, entonces el ministerio de Jesús simplemente fluye fuera de ti. “Al igual que San Pedro y Corrie Ten Boom, todos estamos llenos del Espíritu Santo. ¿Lo dejamos fluir fuera de nosotros?”
