STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Today is the Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist (the Feast Day of the birth of John the Baptist). To say John the Baptist and Jesus were closely related and connected is an understatement. Both were foretold by prophets, especially Isaiah. The only record of the birth of John the Baptist appears in the Gospel of Luke and it is at the heart of our Gospel Reading today. A key player in this event is, of course, John the Baptist's father

Zechariah. Zechariah was a Jewish priest, but when the Archangel Gabriel revealed to him that he would father a child, Zechariah refused to believe it. As a result he was rendered speechless until John was born. Zechariah had total trust in the Lord, however. Although it was traditional at that time to name the first son after the father, he and Elizabeth had been told that they were to name him John. As reported in the Gospel, Elizabeth said "He will be called John." The family protested at which time Zechariah wrote "His name is John." When he did that, Zechariah could speak once more. He did not say "should be"; he said "is." The trust shown by Zechariah is an example to us that we must trust in God, not just when it is convenient, but all the time. Those of advanced generations know who Lawrence Welk was. Born and raised Catholic, Welk practiced his faith throughout his life. He once said, "Never trust anyone completely but God. Love people, but put your full trust only in God." From: <http://www.catholicsteward.com/blog>

REFLEXIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

Hoy es la solemnidad de la Natividad de San Juan el Bautista (el día de la fiesta del nacimiento de Juan el Bautista). Decir que Juan el Bautista y Jesús estaban estrechamente relacionados y conectados es una subestimación. Ambos fueron predichos por los profetas, especialmente Isaías. El único registro del nacimiento de Juan el Bautista aparece en el Evangelio de Lucas y está en el corazón de nuestra lectura del Evangelio de hoy. Un jugador clave en este evento es, por supuesto, el padre de Juan el Bautista, Zacarías. Zacarías era un sacerdote judío, pero cuando el Arcángel Gabriel le reveló que iba a engendrar un hijo, Zacarías se negó a creerlo. Como resultado, se quedó sin palabras hasta que John nació. Sin embargo, Zacarías tenía total confianza en el Señor. Aunque era tradicional en ese momento nombrar al primer hijo después del padre, a él y a Elizabeth se les había dicho que iban a llamarlo Juan. Como se informa en el Evangelio, Elizabeth dijo: "Se llamará Juan". La familia protestó cuando Zacarías escribió "Su nombre es

Juan". Cuando lo hizo, Zacarías pudo hablar una vez más. Él no dijo "debería ser"; él dijo "es". La confianza mostrada por Zacarías es un ejemplo para nosotros de que debemos confiar en Dios, no solo cuando es conveniente, sino todo el tiempo. Los de las generaciones avanzadas saben quién fue Lawrence Welk. Nacido y criado como católico, Welk practicó su fe durante toda su vida. Una vez dijo: "Nunca confíes en nadie completamente, sino en Dios". Ama a las personas, pero pon tu plena confianza solo en Dios".
