STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The First Reading from the prophet Ezekiel tells of how Ezekiel was called by God. The Lord speaks to him and says, "Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you." God knew He was not giving Ezekiel an easy task, but that is part of what being called by the Lord sometimes involves. Being called is something to which we often make reference, as each of us is called in Baptism. St. Paul once wrote that we are "called to belong to Jesus Christ." The United States Bishops issued a document a few years ago titled Disciples Called to Witness. That is what we are all to do as baptized Catholics.

In that treatise the Bishops say, "To create a culture of witness, we must live explicit lives of discipleship. Being a disciple is a challenge. Fortunately, one does not become a disciple of Christ on his or her own initiative. The work of the Holy Spirit within the Christian community forms the person as a disciple of Christ."

God does not forsake us when we are called, just as He did not abandon Ezekiel. He is with us through the Holy Spirit to strengthen us and assist us. We must allow the Lord to help us. At the same time, we must strive to be disciples of the Lord. We are called to spread the light of the Gospel in everything we do. From: <http://www.catholicsteward.com/blog>

REFLEXIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

La primera lectura del profeta Ezequiel habla de cómo Ezequiel fue llamado por Dios. El Señor le habla y le dice: "A los que te estoy enviando, te digo:" De rostro duro y obstinado de corazón ". Dios sabía que no le estaba dando a Ezequiel una tarea fácil, pero eso es parte de lo que el llamado del Señor implica a veces .

Ser llamado es algo a lo que a menudo hacemos referencia, ya que cada uno de nosotros es llamado en el Bautismo.

Una vez, San Pablo escribió que somos "llamados a pertenecer a Jesucristo". Los obispos de Estados Unidos emitieron hace unos años un documento titulado Discípulos llamados a testificar. Eso es lo que todos debemos hacer como católicos bautizados.

En ese tratado, los Obispos dicen: "Para crear una cultura de testimonio, debemos vivir vidas explícitas de discipulado. Ser un discípulo es un desafío. Afortunadamente, uno no se convierte en discípulo de Cristo por su propia iniciativa. El trabajo del Espíritu Santo dentro de la comunidad cristiana forma a la persona como un discípulo de Cristo ". Dios no nos abandona cuando somos llamados, así como Él no abandonó a Ezequiel. Él está con nosotros a través del Espíritu Santo para fortalecernos y ayudarnos. Debemos permitir que el Señor nos ayude. Al mismo tiempo, debemos esforzarnos para ser discípulos del Señor. Estamos llamados a difundir la luz del Evangelio en todo lo que hacemos.
