STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Our Gospel passage and the Second Reading from the letter of St. James urge us to examine our lives for anything that is keeping us from loving God above all else. Jesus says, "If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off... If your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out." St. James warns, "Come now, you rich, weep and wail over your impending miseries. Your wealth has rotted away, your clothes have become moth-eaten, your gold and silver have corroded, and that corrosion will be a testimony against you." The urgency of our need to detach from all that is not God is clear. When we hold onto possessions too tightly, they come to possess us. The "stuff" can easily become the focus of our energy and attention. Attachment to material things slowly and steadily corrupts. The spiritual discipline of tithing — or stewardship of treasure — can help us with this. Tithing leads us to let go of unhealthy attachment to material things and leads us to attach instead to God, relying on Him as our true source of security and happiness. We come to understand that all that we have is a gift from our loving Father and we use it to bless others and glorify Him. Amazingly, we actually enjoy material gifts, and all other gifts, more as a result because we realize where they really came from and are using them as God intended. What wonderful freedom there is in living this way! From: <http://www.catholicsteward.com/blog>

REFLEXIÓN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

Nuestro pasaje del Evangelio y la Segunda lectura de la carta de Santiago nos instan a examinar nuestras vidas por cualquier cosa que nos impida amar a Dios por encima de todo. Jesús dice: "Si tu mano te hace pecar, córtatela ... Si tu pie te hace pecar, córtalo". Y si tu ojo te hace pecar, sácalo ". Santiago le advierte: "Vamos, rico, llora y llora por tus inminentes miserias". Tu riqueza se ha corrompido, tus ropas se han convertido en polillas, tu oro y tu plata se han corroído, y esa corrosión será un testimonio en contra de ti ". La urgencia de nuestra necesidad de separarnos de todo lo que no es Dios es clara. Cuando nos aferramos a las posesiones con demasiada fuerza, llegan a poseernos. Las "cosas" pueden convertirse fácilmente en el foco de nuestra energía y atención. El apego a cosas materiales lenta y constantemente corrompe. La disciplina espiritual del diezmo, o la administración del tesoro, puede ayudarnos con esto. El diezmo nos lleva a abandonar el apego insalubre a las cosas materiales y nos lleva a uniros a Dios, confiando en Él como nuestra verdadera fuente de seguridad y felicidad. Comprendemos que todo lo que tenemos es un regalo de nuestro Padre amoroso y lo usamos para bendecir a otros y glorificarlo. Sorprendentemente, en realidad disfrutamos de los regalos materiales, y todos los demás regalos, más como resultado porque nos damos cuenta de dónde vienen en realidad y los estamos usando como Dios quiso. ¡Qué maravillosa libertad hay para vivir de esta manera!
